

Monash Health Graduate Program: Nursing & Midwifery

Kickstart Your Career with Victoria's Largest Public Health Organisation

- Pathways that advance and expand your nursing and/or midwifery career
- Develop skills in a variety of clinical areas
- Clinical support from dedicated education and operations team to set you up for success, and much more!

Program Name	Program Overview
General Nursing Program	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 12-month structured program • Extensive paid orientation and training • Working part-time (64 hours/fortnight) on a rotating roster • Graduate study days and learning pathways specific to each clinical area and program • The opportunity to apply for available positions within Monash Health upon successful completion of the program • For Graduate Nurses: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Two 6-month rotations • For Graduate Midwives: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Four 3-month rotations consisting of: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Two birth suite rotations • Two post/antenatal rotations • For Double Degree Graduates: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Four 3-month rotations consisting of: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Two birth suite rotations • One post/antenatal rotation • One nursing rotation within a wide range of specialty clinical areas including Newborn, Cardiac and Acute Surgical
Paediatric & Neonatal Nursing Program
Residential Aged Care & Subacute Program
Mental Health Nursing Program
Midwifery Program
Double Degree Program

Learn more about the Monash Health Graduate Program on our website monashhealth.org/nmgrad

